Mission Statement

The Clackamas County Hispanic Interagency Networking Team (HINT) is dedicated to working with private and public agencies and the Hispanic/Latino community to coordinate and integrate social and educational services and promote the cultural heritage of Hispanics/Latinos within the community.

Purpose

- ★ Research, develop and coordinate culturally appropriate services for the Latino Community in Clackamas County
- ★ Advocate for needed resources and community development
- ★ Provide an open forum for dialogue between the Hispanic/Latino community, greater community and governmental agencies
- ★ Serve as a resource to policy developers

HINT Forum / Monthly Presentations

These monthly gatherings are fun and informative! They provide an opportunity to learn about current topics and/or services relevant to the Hispanic/Latino communities of Clackamas County, and to network with private and public agencies for coordination of services.

HINT Website

Launched in November 2012, this site is devoted solely to services and resources for the Latino community in Clackamas County. It features a connection to the Latino Youth Service Provider Network. Here, anyone can ask specific resource questions that will be answered by real people. In addition to finding valuable resources, you will also find:

- ★ Useful Tool Kits
- ★ Statistics and Reports
- ★ Information about our Monthly Forums

We welcome you to join us!
